New Named Scholarship

It has long been a tradition at St. Martin's that generous members of our school community establish named scholarships for the benefit of deserving students. We are pleased to announce a new scholarship designed to support and encourage middle school girls in their academic studies and character growth. Teeya Sahni, Class of 2018, has offered to fund this scholarship, which is named in honor of her late grandfather, Parvesh K. Sharma, a supporter of girls' rights and education. We celebrate and appreciate the generous alumni, parents, and friends of St. Martin's School who have established or who support these various scholarships to the tremendous benefit of our students' academic, faith, and service aspirations. The need to support these deserving students is great and we especially highlight these efforts in the hope that they inspire others to consider helping to change lives and build futures.

Requiescat in Pace Jo-Ann Arlene Patti, 1969-2022

On Sunday, May 8, Mrs. Arlene Patti went home to the Lord after a sudden, brief illness. Mrs. Patti had been the school's office manager since 2014. Her friendly, welcoming persona greeted visitors of all relationships to the school. As her husband mentioned in his beautiful eulogy, Mrs. Patti had found her vocation serving the St. Martin's School community; everything that she did for us, she did with love, informed by the Gospel values of joyful service, empathy, and patience. Mrs. Patti loved to visit with the young faces who stopped by her desk, and to collaborate with co-workers and parents, always helping to improve today for a better school tomorrow. Principal Stephen Lamont reflected that "Mrs. Patti's compassionate service was invaluable; she was a driving force behind our school and her presence is missed every day."

Mrs. Patti had a wonderful and varied education and career. She grew up in Ventura, California with her two younger brothers. Her childhood was full of fun and good stories. She moved east to attend Cornell University. She studied fashion and design, served on a mayoral campaign in her spare time, and met Mr. Patti during her college years. Eventually, they made Maryland their home and raised their two children here. Mrs. Patti brought her creativity, organizational skills, interests, and talents to her position at the school, and we are grateful that she shared her gifts with us.

While we know she was lovingly welcomed into the arms of her Creator, her quiet but vibrant presence is and shall be sorely missed. Each member of our community has been positively impacted by Mrs. Patti. The St. Martin's community grieves together with Mrs. Patti's husband Donald, her children Casey and Katelyn, her parents, her siblings, and the many people who have been blessed to know her and love her. Her family has established the Arlene Patti Memorial Scholarship in loving memory of Mrs. Patti and in honor of her love for and commitment to St. Martin's. We are honored to have this scholarship, and incredibly appreciative of the Patti family's generosity and thoughtfulness. Donations can be made to the "Arlene Patti Memorial Scholarship" by mailing a check to St. Martin's School, 115 S Frederick Ave., Gaithersburg, MD 20877.

Susan Feudale, Our Golden Apple Winner

From the moment you walk into Susan Feudale's second grade classroom, you recognize the compassion, dedication, and eagerness of a teacher who educates, loves, and nurtures her students. As a teacher of young children at St. Martin's, Mrs. Feudale is regarded as an inspiration to her students, co-workers, and all who enter her classroom.

"Mrs. Feudale combines a passion for her faith with a love of learning to create an environment that fosters the growth of the whole child," explains Principal Stephen Lamont.

On May 25, Susan Feudale was presented with the Golden Apple Award by the Archdiocese of Washington Catholic Schools Office, marking a special way to celebrate her 19th year of teaching at St. Martin's. The award sponsored by the Donahue Family Foundation recognizes the teaching excellence and dedication of ten local Catholic school teachers every year and includes a $5,000 check and a golden apple. Anne Dillon, Assistant Superintendent for School Operations and Student Services, was among the Catholic Schools Office representatives in attendance to present the award.

In a statement nominating Feudale for the Golden Apple Award, Father Wells wrote about the impact that she has had on her students, noting, "She lives and shares her faith, and is passionately dedicated to the education of her students. She goes the extra mile in and out of the classroom to make St. Martin's a vibrant, faith-filled, family centered school."

Mrs. Feudale was born in Silver Spring, Maryland and spent her childhood in Florida and South Carolina before returning to the area. She graduated from the University of Maryland with post graduate work at Trinity College in Washington, D.C. While attending Catholic school in Columbia, South Carolina, Mrs. Feudale experienced rich Catholic traditions and saw her faith flourish. She began her teaching career at public schools but it was not until she began teaching at St. Martin's that she found her true vocation. Her two daughters, Calli Ann and Gabriela, were attending St. Martin's and she would volunteer in the library and help with Writer's Workshop in second grade. When a first grade position became available, she immediately applied to then Principal Shirley Wise and was hired. "It was and continues to be one of the greatest blessings of my life," declares Mrs. Feudale.

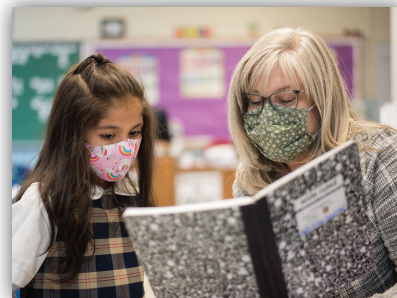

Her classroom is warm and inviting, adorned with student work, resources, motivational messages, and religious symbols. Her students are loved, challenged, and supported to strive to achieve and hold themselves accountable for their own learning. Mrs. Feudale's lessons are engaging, accessible for all types of learners, and responsive to student needs and interests. As Vivian Abudayeh,

Home and School Association President, parent, and alumna describes, "Her cheerful personality, love of God, and her dedication to our students are a gift to our school. She ensures students receive the attention they need, whether it is one on one, additional help, or just extra love." Mrs. Feudale further explains, "I think it is important to have high expectations for students to help them see what they can truly achieve. With continued support, love, and encouragement, students can work to their full potential." She also never misses an opportunity to make school fun because then as she says, "students never want to miss a day."

During the summer of 2020, Mrs. Feudale approached Principal Lamont about moving with her students up to second grade, a recently vacated position. She felt there was more work to be done with her students whose year was interrupted due to the building closure in March of that year. Additionally, Mrs. Feudale wanted to prepare her students to receive their sacraments in second grade. Principal Lamont asserts, "She embraced growth, flexibility, and leadership as she transitioned to this new grade in the middle of a pandemic."

Beyond the classroom, Mrs. Feudale is a spiritual steward, academic leader, mentor, and a source of joy. Teaching at a Catholic school offers occasions to wear many hats and Mrs. Feudale welcomes these opportunities. She is on the Religious Life Committee, is an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist, and coordinates morning prayers. She welcomes new members into our community – teachers, students, and families alike – and helps them assimilate into our school culture. She also coordinates multiple grants with the City of Gaithersburg to provide afterschool enrichment and academic support programs. When asked about her extraordinary contributions to the St. Martin's community, she adds, "The friendships and bonds that are created here among students, staff and parents are lifelong. They are an extension of Jesus' love for us and you can feel it whenever you walk through the door. Our graduates, former colleagues, and parents know that they can always stop by for a little sense of family."

Before the surprise presentation, the school was holding its Honors Assembly in the gym, where we recognized students who received third quarter honors and Crusaders of Character certificates for ethical behavior. It was an exhilarating experience for Mrs. Feudale when presented with the Golden Apple Award, while surrounded by her co-workers, students, friends, and family. She said, "I am incredibly grateful to all those who came to celebrate with me. I am truly honored and blessed to have received this award. I thank God for giving me this vocation and for blessing me with all those who have been part of this joyful journey!"

Celebrating the bestowal of Susan Feudale's Golden Apple Award helped bring together her family, our school community, our faith in God, and our appreciation for the love of learning; all of which are the driving forces behind Mrs. Feudale's achievements and success as a Catholic school teacher.

As I Say Goodbye

By Katelyn Ramirez, Class of 2022

"The two hardest things to say in life are hello for the first time and goodbye for the last." - Moira Rogers

Who would have ever thought we would be here, about to graduate and embark on a new journey called high school. Graduation is a successful ending and an exciting beginning. For some it's the thought of "Thank goodness, I'm done with this place!" and for others it's "I can't believe we are done; it feels like we just started!"

I have spent 9 years at St. Martin's and I can't believe my time is about to come to an end as I begin a new chapter. As I say goodbye I will miss my classmates and the teachers that would always teach me and my classmates new materials every day. Believe me when I say, my classmates are probably some of the funniest, most difficult, and loudest people I have ever known. We have made fond memories, made each other laugh until our stomachs hurt, and have always been there for each other. The majority of us met in 2012 on our first day at St. Martin's, about to start Kindergarten. As we walked through the doors that day, sad to leave our parents, we were stepping into the first chapter of our education. We met our first friends, we had our first classes, our first homework assignment, and then in the blink of an eye we were 8th graders!

It's sad to think that we will all be going our separate ways soon, but let's never forget to text or call each other and hang out once in a while. I'm so happy to have known each and every one of you. We learned, listened, and worked so hard to get to where we are today. Soon, we will all have new goals, make new friends, and have different teachers, but whether some might like to admit it or not, the one thing we will definitely miss is each other. As the song 'History' by One Direction says, "You and me got a whole lot of history."

Every student has had their ups and downs with teachers, but the teachers at St. Martin's are always dedicated and have helped us through hard times. When we went virtual, the teachers had to adapt to learn how to use Google Classroom, how to use Zoom, and how to teach through a computer. Please know, teachers, that we appreciate you. Your sacrifices don't go unnoticed and without you, we wouldn't be where we are today.

It's crazy how many memories you can make in 9 years. St. Martin's has given me so many cherished memories to always remember, like Dunk Tank Day, Catholic Schools' Week, the Christmas and Spring concerts, band concerts, and many more. I will never forget the Cookie Jar Song from first grade taught by Mrs. Feudale, or the time it was April Fool's Day in 5th grade, and we were going to "prank" the classes but we were being too loud, so it didn't last very long.

One big lesson I have learned this year is that time moves very fast, so make the most of every moment and make every moment a memorable one. I will never take the memories that I have made here at St. Martin's for granted, I will take it with me beyond. One memory, though, I will never forget is my 8th grade year here. When COVID hit in 2020, my class and I weren't sure what would happen when our 8th grade year came upon us. As time went by we asked ourselves many questions like, "Will we be all in person? Will we have a traditional playground photo? Will we have the 8th grade vs. teachers volleyball game?" and "Will we have a proper graduation ceremony?" Now, all those questions have been answered. My class and I are lucky enough to have had everything the previous two classes may not have had. I will forever cherish and be extremely grateful to the staff and Mr. Lamont for letting us be able to experience the 8th grade festivities and most importantly for having a proper graduation with the people who have seen us grow to young men and women.

As I say goodbye, I would like to thank the faculty and staff for making this year a fun and memorable one for the class of 2022. Personally, I would also like to thank the teachers. As I leave, I would like to thank every teacher for teaching me how to add and subtract, teaching me what the difference is between verbs, nouns, and adjectives, what the 7 types of atmospheres are, what the 13 colonies are, and for teaching me that faith is the most important thing in life. Teachers come and go but the memories that each individual teacher leaves upon us will never be forgotten. Thank you for all that you've done, and all the lessons that you've taught us, and don't forget that you will always be missed by the class of 2022. I would also like to thank our parents. A few years ago, they had to decide where to send their daughter or son to school. Our parents chose St. Martin of Tours School. I can't begin to express how thankful I am to be graduating from St. Martin's. I'm pretty sure most of us are nervous about going to high school, but we are confident that SMS has given us all the fundamentals for success. As we have been taught, grades don't define who we are. The actions and words that we leave behind are what define us. As we leave, we must always remember to cherish and be grateful for the lifelong friendships and memories we have made at St. Martin's. As Richard Bach once said, "Don't be dismayed at goodbyes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends."

~ In Memoriam ~

We lovingly remember Rita Carlisi, who went to the Lord on April 16. Mrs. Carlisi was our 8th grade teacher and Assistant Principal for 25 years, from 1978 through 2003. A life so beautifully lived deserves to be beautifully remembered. We hold her family in our thoughts and prayers.

Endowment Funds: Honor Roll of Donors

Every Gift Matters. Every Giver Makes an Impact.

We thank our alumni, parents, parishioners, and friends for their generous support of our School Operating and Financial Aid Endowment Funds this past year. It is the collective impact of our entire community – including you – that enables us to continue to deliver on our mission. The principal of each Fund is invested responsibly in line with our Catholic values. The interest generated from the Operating Fund helps defray the cost of a Catholic education that tuition revenue alone does not cover. The interest generated from the Financial Aid Fund provides financial assistance to students who could not otherwise afford a St. Martin's education. These investments allow your generosity to make a difference year after year.

Please consider making a tax-deductible gift to our School Operating Fund or to our Financial Aid Fund. On the envelope enclosed, please check the box to designate which Fund should receive your generous donation.

The Honor Roll of Donors includes gifts donated to the Funds from June 16, 2021 – June 15, 2022. If an error or omission has been made, we apologize and ask that you contact Anne Gemunder, Director of Development, at agemunder@smsmd.org.
